

January 12, 2004

Arkansas Register

RE: Proposed Rule Change, Arkansas Manufactured Home Commission

The Arkansas Manufactured Home Commissioners are proposing several minor changes along with one substantive change to their Rules and Regulations. The sole substantive change provides for auctions of manufactured homes by holders in due course. This change will outline procedures for auctions by Certified Retailers and holders in due course that offer manufactured homes at auction to Certified Retailers only.

Whit Waller, Director